PRESS RELEASE

AARON CHAUSMER ANNOUNCES CAMPAIGN FOR DEKALB COUNTY SUPERIOR COURT JUDGE, DIVISION 3

"I am excited to announce my candidacy for Superior Court Judge in DeKalb County, Division 3. The incumbent has decided not to seek re-election. As a long-time resident of DeKalb County, I have enjoyed being an active member of our community, working tirelessly to make it safer, fair and welcoming for all. I believe that judges should be mindful of the idea that justice too long delayed is justice denied. As your next Judge, I look forward to improving the judicial process through greater efficiency." - Aaron Chausmer

About Aaron Chausmer

Aaron is a respected attorney, husband, father, and long-time resident of DeKalb County. Aaron is running for Superior Court Judge because he is passionate about working in the court system to improve efficiency, increase transparency, reduce recidivism, and ensure that everyone who enters his courtroom is treated fairly and with dignity.

Aaron Chausmer brings more than two decades of experience, with a strong background in commercial and business litigation matters. His focus areas include competition-based matters, commercial and contract disputes, corporate governance issues and labor and employment matters.

An active member of the State Bar of Georgia, Aaron has acted as a fee arbitrator, as a mentor in its Transition Into Law Practice program, and as a member of the State Bar's Law Practice Management Program and Business Court Committees. He speaks frequently to both lawyers and business owners about restrictive covenants and their impact on businesses and litigating disputes involving closely held businesses. Aaron has been a featured speaker for Lorman Education Services, Strafford Publications, the Sandy Springs /Perimeter Chambers Small Business Council Educational Series, to name a few.

Aaron first came to Atlanta in 1991 to attend Emory University. Upon graduation, he attended Boston University School of Law, where he was selected for the International Law Journal and chosen to be a Case and Note Editor. He earned his Juris Doctor degree in 1998 and then immediately returned to Atlanta.

When not practicing law, Aaron enjoys world travel, cheering for Atlanta United, and spending time with his wife, Jaimie, and their children, Leah and Asher.
